Welcome to Dublin.

Dublin is one of the top city break destinations in Europe and for atmosphere, night life, visitor attractions, activities and shopping, it has very few rivals. Steeped in history and buzzing with youthful energy, the Irish capital is at the very heart of Irish culture.

Dublin is one of Europe's oldest cities and as well as retaining its historical and cultural charms, the city also offers trendy bars, elegant restaurants and stylish, cosmopolitan shops and hotels. There's never been a better time to visit Dublin, a city that is rivalling Europe's elite for hip appeal. Conference participants who arrive early could enjoy "Bloomsday" - one of Ireland's greatest cultural celebrations, which takes place on 16th June each year. More details can be found at <http://www.jamesjoyce.ie/listing.asp?id=29>

Enjoy a literary pub crawl around the city, experience a Dublin Bay sea thrill, a boat trip on the River Liffey or enjoy a traditional Irish music session in one of our famous Irish pubs. The options are endless and the welcome is always warm.

About University College Dublin

University College Dublin (UCD) is a dynamic, modern university where cutting-edge research and scholarship provide a stimulating intellectual environment - the ideal surroundings for learning and discovery.

For over 150 years, UCD has produced graduates of remarkable distinction including famous surgeons, architects, entrepreneurs and five of Ireland's Taoisigh (Prime Ministers). Perhaps the best known of all its graduates is the writer James Joyce, who completed his Bachelor of Arts at the university in 1902.

Established in 1854, the university played a key role in the history of the modern Irish State and today it plays a leading part in shaping Ireland's future. As Ireland forges a new identity through relationships with international partners, the university will adopt an increasingly international outlook.

Getting to the Conference

The conference will take place in University College Dublin. UCD is located in Belfield, Dublin 4 which is in South Dublin –as indicated on the map below.

Dublin Airport is served by many of the leading airlines. The largest carriers are Aer Lingus and Ryanair, each of which offers budget air travel from many European destinations. Aer Lingus and some North American carriers offer direct transatlantic flights into Dublin. There are additionally flights from most of the European hubs into Dublin for those coming from outside Europe. For a list of all airlines that fly into and out of Dublin, please visit www.daa.ie. Transport options from the airport are bus, taxi or car. There is no train connection from the airport.

- Details of travel to UCD and maps can be found at <http://www.ucd.ie/gettingtoucd.htm>
- The Conference Venue is the Quinn School of Business, marked Number 44 on the campus map http://www.ucd.ie/maps/UCD\_Map\_2009.pdf
- The official opening and keynote lecture will take place at Dublin Castle, in the city centre, on the evening of Thursday 17 June, but all other activities will be held on the UCD campus.

Useful Information

Dublin Tourism Information and Reservation Centres can be found at Dublin Airport, Dún Laoghaire Ferry Port, and at Suffolk Street and O’Connell Street in the city centre. Call into one of our offices and let the experts guide you around Dublin. For more information see visitdublin.com.

Climate

Dublin’s climate is mild and very changeable. It is influenced by the Gulf Stream. Winter temperatures average 4°C-7°C (39°-44°F) and in summer between 16°C-20°C (60°F-67°F). There are about eighteen hours of daylight daily during July and August, only getting truly dark after 23.00.

Population

The population of Dublin City and County is almost 1.4 million. English is the spoken language throughout Ireland. Irish (or Gaelic) is the original native language of Ireland. Place names and signage are usually in both languages.

Currency

The Euro is the only currency that is officially recognised as legal tender in the Republic of Ireland. Each Euro has 100 cent.

Electrical Current

220 / 240 volts (50 cycles) is the standard electrical current throughout Ireland. Plugs are 3-pin flat. Adapters are therefore required for 2-pin appliances.

Tipping

In restaurants a customary service charge may be added to a bill. If a service charge is included, tipping is not necessary, unless the service received is exemplary. If a service charge was not included, a normal tip is between 10%-15%. With other services from hairdressers to taxi drivers, it is generally not necessary to tip although staff will always appreciate acknowledgment of service.

Smoking

Dublin was Europe’s first smoke free capital city! Since 29th March 2004 smoking is banned in all enclosed places of work in Ireland. This includes banks, office blocks, public buildings, pubs, nightclubs, restaurants and cafés. The primary purpose of the prohibition is to give protection to workers and the public who are exposed to harmful environmental tobacco smoke. Exceptions include hotel, guesthouse and B&B bedrooms and private accommodation. Most pubs and some restaurants have installed or extended existing beer-gardens or patios to cater for those who smoke.

Theatre & Event tickets

You can book theatre and other event tickets at the Box office in Dublin Tourism at the following locations:

- Dublin Tourism Centre, Suffolk Street, Dublin 2
- Upper O’ Connell Street, Dublin 1

Restaurants

Dublin is a modern, cosmopolitan city – something that is reflected in vast array of restaurants on offer. Whatever your taste or budget; there is a wide variety of restaurants to choose from during your stay with us here in Dublin.

Wherever you eat, portions will be generous, especially in pubs. With its coastal location, it’s not surprising to find so much seafood on offer in Dublin, in particular smoked salmon and oysters are a favourite and are usually consumed with a Guinness!

For restaurant reviews: www.visitdublin.com

Telephone

The international code for Ireland is 00 353. The local area code for Dublin is 01. In an emergency, call 999 or 112. These numbers will alert the appropriate service – fire, police

(Gardaí), lifeboat, coastal, mountain and cave rescue services. The numbers for local and national directory enquiries are 11811 or 11850 and for international enquiries 11818 or 11860. The Irish

Tourist Assistance Service is on Harcourt Street, Dublin 2 and can be contacted on +353 1 478 5295, www.itas.ie. Internet and wifi Access Internet and WiFi access is available throughout Dublin.
